TWENTY-FIVE HOURS

Interference, that is what I cannot stand at all, interference from authority that would suck out a man's soul. Permission for this, permission for that; you will report, under pain of punishment, fill in this form, do not distort (knowingly). You are ours for twenty-five hours a day, we will allow you too much pay and too much time to play.

I do not like the official embrace, its stomach is fat and its motives are base. Still, you are free, my brothers (don't shake the bars), free to toss pancakes and practice your guitars. So many people before you did things for your sake that none had time to find and hide the file in your cake.
